Subsidy for Ferry Is Opposed by Craig

Controller Says Company Has Been Operating Without Franchise for Years

mained dormant and the company has continued to operate the ferry without a franchise or agreement of any kind. The controller says that a part of the real estate claimed to be owned by the company in Brooklyn the city also claims ownership to, and for that reason the idea of buying the ferry property should not be considered. He offered a resolution that the Corporation Counsel be directed to take steps to compel the company to continue its tervice. The Controller pointed out, however, that the public would suffer no great inconvenience if the ferry company was forced to discontinue op-however, that the public would suffer no great inconvenience if the ferry company was forced to discontinue operations.

He explained that the ferry across the East River at Roosevelt Street would be sufficient to handle traffic.

$10,000 Bail Fixed for Rice

Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Misusing Mails Jacob Simon Herzig, alias George Graham Rice, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him with using the mails in a scheme to defraud yesterday before Judge Sheppard, in the Federal District Court. Bail was fixed at $10,000. Pending the filing of surety Herzig, or Rice, was paroled in the custody of his counsel.

Inadvertently The Tribune in its issue of August 6 stated that Mr. Rice pleaded guilty in General Sessions to one of five indictments charging him with the larceny of stock purchased by one of his customers. The statement should have read "not guilty." The defendant, through his counsel, in substantiation of his plea, said he had no personal knowledge of the failure to deliver the certificate of stock to the complainant, and that he had offered to turn over the certificates to District Attorney Swann. ing, and Auditing.
